August 26, 2014

Amanda Abrahams
California State University, Chico
amandabrahams@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Examining Communities of Practice and the Effects of Distributed Cognition in a Foreign Language Writing Space” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Amanda Abrahams, California State University, Chico, amandabrahams@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Yoo Young Ahn
Indiana University Bloomington
yooyahn@umail.iu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Departmental Academic Support for International Doctoral Students” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Yoo Young Ahn, Indiana University Bloomington, yooyahn@umail.iu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Mariam Alamyar
Purdue University/ Originally from Afghanistan, but now live in the USA
malamyar@purdue.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Attitudes of Native and Non-native English Speaking Students in Freshman Composition towards Academic Writing and Writing in General” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Mariam Alamyar, Purdue University/ Originally from Afghanistan, but now live in the USA, malamyar@purdue.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Nawwaf Alhazmi
Purdue University
nalhazmi@purdue.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Teaching EFL Written Workplace Communication in a Globalizing Era: A Study from Saudi Arabia” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Nawwaf Alhazmi, Purdue University, nalhazmi@purdue.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Salena Anderson
Valparaiso University
Salena.Anderson@valpo.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Linguistic Agency and Ability in Large-Scale Writing Assessment Rubrics and Band Descriptors” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Salena Anderson, Valparaiso University, Salena.Anderson@valpo.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Elena Andrei
Coastal Carolina University
eandrei@coastal.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Teacher Study Group: Teachers’ Views Before and After” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Elena Andrei, Coastal Carolina University, eandrei@coastal.edu
Marcie Ellerbe, Coastal Carolina University, mlknox@coastal.edu
Todd Cherner, Coastal Carolina University, tcherner@coastal.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Rijasoa Andriamanana
University of New Mexico
rijasoa@unm.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “From Personal Experiences in L1 Culture to Scholarly Topics in L2 Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Rijasoa Andriamanana, University of New Mexico, rjaminana@unm.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Tuba Angay-Crowder
Georgia State University
tangay1@student.gsu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Use of Moves and Intertextual Connections to Understand How L2 Writers Construct Professional Identities at Web Seminars” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Tuba Angay-Crowder, Georgia State University, tangay1@student.gsu.edu
Peggy Albers, Georgia State University, malbers2@gsu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Esther Anyanwu
Nnamdi Azikiwe University, Awka
kaodisun@yahoo.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Digitizing Writing as a Developmental Continuum to Professionalization: The Nigerian Experience” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Esther Anyanwu, Nnamdi Azikiwe University, Awka, kaodisun@yahoo.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Beril T. Arik
Purdue University
btezelle@purdue.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Emergence and Professionalization of Second Language Writing: Publications in Web of Science” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Beril T. Arik, Purdue University, btezelle@purdue.edu
Engin Arik, Dogus University, enginarik@enginarik.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Aylin Baris Atilgan
Purdue University
aatilgan@purdue.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “A Needs Analysis for Chinese Students in First Year Mainstream Composition Courses” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Aylin Baris Atilgan, Purdue University, aatilgan@purdue.edu
Beril Tezeller Arik, Purdue University, btezelle@purdue.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Aylin Baris Atilgan
Purdue University
aatilgan@purdue.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “A Needs Analysis for Chinese Students in Mainstream Composition Courses” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Aylin Baris Atilgan, Purdue University, aatilgan@purdue.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Diane Belcher
Georgia State University
dbelcher1@gsu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Tutoring One’s Way to L2 Writing Teacher Cognition” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Diane Belcher, Georgia State University, dbelcher1@gsu.edu
Hae Sung Yang, Georgia State University, hyang20@gsu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Ibtissem Belmihoub
North Dakota State University
ibtissem.belmihoub@my.ndsu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “English Writing Instruction in College Level in Algeria” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Ibtissem Belmihoub, North Dakota State University, ibtissem.belmihoub@my.ndsu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Jin Bi
The University of Utah
jin.bi@utah.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Writer’s Block and Writing Apprehension in EFL Academic Writing in China” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Jin Bi, The University of Utah, jin.bi@utah.edu
Xiaoqing Qin, Central China Normal University, qxq@mail.ccnu.edu.cn

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

John Bitchener
AUT University
john.bitchener@aut.ac.nz

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “A Dialogic Conversation or a Uni-directional Monologue between Supervisor and Student: The Relationship between Feedback Content, Pragmatic Realization and Co-constructed Understandings” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

John Bitchener, AUT University, john.bitchener@aut.ac.nz

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Susan Bleyle
Georgia Gwinnett College
sbleyle@ggc.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Blogging in the EAP Composition Classroom: Embracing the 21st Century Two Decades in” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Susan Bleyle, Georgia Gwinnett College, sbleyle@ggc.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:
http://sslw.asu.edu/2014

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Kristjan Bondesson
California State University, Monterey Bay
kristjan_bondesson@hotmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Linguistic Processes and Second Language Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

kristjan bondesson, California State University, Monterey Bay,
kristjan_bondesson@hotmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Jennifer Borgen
INTO Oregon State University
jennifer.borgen@oregonstate.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Connecting Learners to a Global Audience: Teaching Writing through Blogging & Quadblogging” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Jennifer Borgen, INTO Oregon State University, jennifer.borgen@oregonstate.edu
Elena Pipenko, INTO Oregon State University, elena.pipenko@oregonstate.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Junghhee Byun
Seoul National University
jhb363@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “A Corpus-based Study on the Rhetorical Features of Research Article Abstracts (RAAs) Written by Korean EFL Learners” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

JUNGHIEEE BYUN, SEOUL NATIONAL UNIVERSITY, jhb363@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Nigel Caplan University of Delaware
nacaplan@udel.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “The State of L2 Graduate Student Writing Support” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Nigel Caplan, University of Delaware, nacaplan@udel.edu
Michelle Cox, Dartmouth College, Michelle.Cox@dartmouth.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Christine Pearson Casanave
Temple University, Japan Campus
casanave@redshift.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Before the Dissertation Writing Begins: Tips for L2 Doctoral Students” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Christine Pearson Casanave, Temple University, Japan Campus, casanave@redshift.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Pául Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Tzu-Shan Chang
Wenzao Ursuline University of Languages
tzushanchang@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “The Role of Qi-Cheng-Zhuan-He Rhetorical Structure as a Strategy in Genre Learning: Developing EFL Writers’ Genre Awareness and Writing Competence in Argumentative Essays” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Tzu-Shan Chang, Wenzao Ursuline University of Languages, tzushanchang@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Karen C. C. Chang
National Taipei University
changcc@mail.ntpu.edu.tw

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Examining an Alternative Way of Providing Corrective Feedback to EFL Writers” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Karen C. C. Chang, National Taipei University, changcc@mail.ntpu.edu.tw

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Mark Chapman
CaMLA
chapman.m@cambridgemichigan.org

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Professionalizing the Training of Raters of Second Language Writing: Who, Why, and How?” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Mark Chapman, CaMLA, chapman.m@cambridgemichigan.org
Heather Elliott, CaMLA, elliott.h@cambridgemichigan.org
Ummehaany Jameel, CaMLA, jameel.u@cambridgemichigan.org

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Yue Chen
Purdue University
chen1398@purdue.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “From Novice Writer to Writing Instructor: An Autoethnography of an International Teaching Assistant’s Professional Development” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Yue Chen, Purdue University, chen1398@purdue.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Yue Chen
Purdue University
chen1398@purdue.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Statistics-supported Directed Self-placement” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Yue Chen, Purdue University, chen1398@purdue.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Dongmei Cheng
Southern Illinois University
dongmei.cheng@siu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “An Exploration of Teaching EAP Writing in a Content-Based Curriculum” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Dongmei Cheng, Southern Illinois University, dongmei.cheng@siu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Yin Ling Cheung
Nanyang Technological University
yinling.cheung@nie.edu.sg

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Introducing Undergraduate Students to Word Engine and Peer Review of Writing: An Assessment for Learning Perspective” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Yin Ling Cheung, Nanyang Technological University, yinling.cheung@nie.edu.sg

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Yeon Hee Choi
Ewha Womans University
yhchoi@ewha.ac.kr

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Language and Topic Variations in Establishing A Niche in Journal Articles of Applied Linguistics” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Yeon Hee Choi, Ewha Womans University, yhchoi@ewha.ac.kr

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

M. Sidury Christiansen
University of Texas at San Antonio
chrimsid@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Fostering L2 Academic Writing through Digital Literacy: Professionalizing ESL Composition in the Digital Era” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

M. Sidury Christiansen, University of Texas at San Antonio, chrimsid@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Tony Cimasko
Miami University
tony.cimasko@miamioh.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “ESL Composition Student Participation in Mainstream Composition Course” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Tony Cimasko, Miami University, tony.cimasko@miamioh.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Cori Crane
University of Texas at Austin
c crane@austin.utexas.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Complex Personal Letter-Writing in Advanced Collegiate FL Instruction” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Cori Crane, University of Texas at Austin, c crane@austin.utexas.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Lance Cummings
University of North Carolina Wilmington
cummingsl@uncw.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “"Plain English" and the YMCA Technical Writing Classroom: Recovering Pre-professional Moments in SLW” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Lance Cummings, University of North Carolina Wilmington, cummingsl@uncw.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:  http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Christa de Kleine
Notre Dame of Maryland University
cdekleine@ndm.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Unique or Not?: An Analysis of Error Patterns in the Writings of Generation 1.5 Students” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Christa de Kleine, Notre Dame of Maryland University, cdekleine@ndm.edu
Rachele Lawton, The Community College of Baltimore County, rlawton@ccbc.edu
Minah Woo, Howard Community College, mwoo@howard.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Chloe de los Reyes
California State University, San Bernardino
cdelosre@csusb.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Two-way Street: Rethinking Acculturation in US Writing Classrooms” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Chloe de los Reyes, California State University, San Bernardino, cdelosre@csusb.edu
Mallory Ruiz-Lester, California State University, San Bernardino, mruiz@csusb.edu
Guadalupe Rincon, California State University, San Bernardino, rincg300@coyote.csusb.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Juhyun Do
The Ohio State University
do.89@osu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Writing Conferences as Mediated Worlds for Academic Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Juhyun Do, The Ohio State University, do.89@osu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Matthew Duncan
Wasatch Academy
matt@chaospirals.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Who Will Read Your Textbook: A Need for a New Audience Analysis” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Matthew Duncan, Wasatch Academy, matt@chaospirals.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Grant Eckstein
UC Davis
gteckstein@ucdavis.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Dynamic Written Corrective Feedback: Its Past, Present, and Future” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Kendon Kurzer, UC Davis, kckurzer@ucdavis.edu
Grant Eckstein, UC Davis, gteckstein@ucdavis.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Grant Eckstein
UC Davis
gteckstein@ucdavis.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “International and Immigrant Students: Differing Needs When Writing One-on-One” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Grant Eckstein, UC Davis, gteckstein@ucdavis.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Norman Evans
Brigham Young University
norman_evans@byu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Disciplinary Writing Differences, Expectations, and Challenges for Undergraduate L2 Writers” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Norman Evans, Brigham Young University, norman_evans@byu.edu
James Hartshorn, Brigham Young University, james_hartshorn@byu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Norah Fahim
University of Washington
nfahim@uw.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Taking a Stance: Normalizing L2 Needs in Mainstream Composition Classes” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Norah Fahim, University of Washington, nfahim@uw.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Yanan Fan
San Francisco State University fan.y@sbcglobal.net

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Learn and Grow as a Writing Teacher” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Yanan Fan, San Francisco State University, fan.y@sbcglobal.net

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Lidya Farag
The American University in Cairo
lidya_magdy@aucegypt.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “An Investigation of Students' Preferences as Compared to Teachers' Written Feedback Practices in Egyptian ESL Classes” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Lidya Farag, The American University in Cairo, lidya_magdy@aucegypt.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Ismaeil Fazel
The University of British Columbia
ismaeil.fazel@ubc.ca

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Self and Peer-assessment in Second Language Writing: Students’ Perspective” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Sandra Zappa, The University of British Columbia, sandra.zappa@ubc.ca
Ismaeil Fazel, The University of British Columbia, ismaeil.fazel@ubc.ca

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:
http://sslw.asu.edu/2014

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Gary Fogal
Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, University of Toronto
gg.fogal@mail.utoronto.ca

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Cultivating Voice in the Academic Writing of Japanese University Students: A Case for Employing Literature Studies in the Writing Classroom” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Gary Fogal, Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, University of Toronto,
gg.fogal@mail.utoronto.ca

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Leora Freedman
University of Toronto
leora.freedman@utoronto.ca

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Applying the Lexical Approach to One-on-one Writing Instruction” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Leora Freedman, University of Toronto, leora.freedman@utoronto.ca
Rebecca Smollett, OCAD University, rsmollett@ocadu.ca

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Ghada Gherwash
Purdue University
ggherwas@purdue.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Beyond Generalizability: What Do We Know about Case Studies in the Field of SLW and What Can We Learn from Them?” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Ghada Gherwash, Purdue University, ggherwas@purdue.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Betsy Gilliland
University of Hawaii Manoa
egillila@hawaii.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Second Language Writing MOOCs: Affordances and Missed Opportunities” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Betsy Gilliland, University of Hawaii Manoa, egillila@hawaii.edu
Ai Oyama, University of Hawaii Manoa, aioyama@hawaii.edu
Pamela Stacey, University of Hawaii Manoa, pstacey@hawaii.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Mary Ellis Glymph
University of Tennessee, Knoxville
glyph@vols.utk.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Making the Game Plan: A Study of Multilingual Writers’ Genre and Audience Perceptions during the Planning Stage of the Writing Process” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Mary Ellis Glymph, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, mglyph@vols.utk.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Julie Goldman
San Diego County Office of Education
juliemg123@yahoo.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Teachers' Sense of Efficacy in Teaching Second Language Writing to Middle and High School Long-term English Learners” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Julie Goldman, San Diego County Office of Education, juliemg123@yahoo.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Lynn Goldstein
The Monterey Institute of International Studies
lynng@miis.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, ““Revising” L2 Feedback and Revision Research: Looking to the Future” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Lynn Goldstein, The Monterey Institute of International Studies, lynng@miis.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Melanie Gonzalez
Salem State University
mgonzalez@salemstate.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Lexical Diversity, Sophistication, and Size in Academic Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Melanie Gonzalez, Salem State University, mgonzalez@salemstate.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Tina Gunnarsson
Lund University
tina.gunnarsson@englund.lu.se

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Multilingual Students' Use of Their Linguistic Repertoires When Writing in a Non-native Language” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Tina Gunnarsson, Lund University, tina.gunnarsson@englund.lu.se
Marie Källkvist, Lund University, marie.kallkvist@englund.lu.se

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Nick Halsey
University of Arizona
nickbhalsey@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Examining the Role of Online Machine Translators in the Writing Processes of College-level L2 Writers” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Nick Halsey, University of Arizona, nickbhalsey@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Ye Han
The University of Hong Kong
yhan2361@hku.hk

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Corrective Feedback Embedded in a Writing Conference: How Graduated and How Contingent Is It to L2 Learners’ Need?” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Ye Han, The University of Hong Kong, yhan2361@hku.hk

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Lindsay Hansen
University of Arizona
lhansen@email.arizona.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Expectations and Experiences of Undergraduate L2 Writers Conducting Research” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Lindsay Hansen, University of Utah, lindsayhansen1181@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Ling He
Miami University
ling.he@miamioh.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “ESL Composition Instruction: Redress Its Balance” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Ling He, Miami University, ling.he@miamioh.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Sarah Henderson Lee
Lindenwood University
adele331@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Bridging the Home-school Literacies of ELLs: Toward Positive Change in Teacher Education” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Sarah Henderson Lee, Lindenwood University, adele331@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Joel Heng Hartse
University of British Columbia
joelhartse@gmail.com

 LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, ““From My Own Point of View, and Standing At Your Place”: Chinese and Non-Chinese English Teachers’ Judgments of Lexical and Grammatical Variation in Academic Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Joel Heng Hartse, University of British Columbia, joelhartse@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Linda Henriksen
Kansas State University
lkhenriksen@yahoo.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Service Learning and Relevance for the IEP Writing Student: Connecting Communities” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Linda Henriksen, Kansas State University, lkhenriksen@yahoo.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Amanda Hilliard
Arizona State University, American English and Culture Program
amandahilliard502@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “The Effects of Instruction Based on Conceptual Metaphor Theory on EFL Students' Writing Performance” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Amanda Hilliard, Arizona State University, American English and Culture Program, amandahilliard502@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Maria Houston
Indiana University of Pennsylvania
qrdr@iup.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “The Impact of Composing Short Books in an EAP Writing Class on the Students' Perceived Writing Abilities and Attitudes to Writing in English” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Maria Houston, Indiana University of Pennsylvania, qrdr@iup.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Yun-yin Huang
Dept. of Teaching and Learning, NYU
yyh231@nyu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Taiwanese College Students’ Online Collaboration in L2: A Consensus-building Process” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Yun-yin Huang, Dept. of Teaching and Learning, NYU, yyh231@nyu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Lee Jung Huang
Purdue University
huang266@purdue.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “"My (Non-native) Teacher Is My Inspiration": A Case Study of L2 Writing Teachers’ Awareness of Students’ Needs & Practices” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Lee Jung Huang, Purdue University, huang266@purdue.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Serhat İnan
Gazi University
serhatinan@outlook.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “A Comparative Analysis of Turkish Second Language Writers' Sentence Structure Preferences: An Investigation of Journal Articles” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Mehmet KARACA, Gazi University, mehmetkaraca55@gmail.com
Serhat İNAN, Gazi University, serhatinan@outlook.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Heon Jeon
The Ohio State University
jeon.59@osu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Exploring the Interaction among Contextual, Student, and Teacher Variables Influencing ESL Undergraduate Students’ Writing Tutorial Based Revision” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

HEON JEON, The Ohio State University, jeon.59@osu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Ann Johns
San Diego State University
ajohns@cox.net

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Common Core State Standards (CCSS) and Assessments: Implications for Multi-lingual Writers” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Ann Johns, San Diego State University, ajohns@cox.net
Rhea Faeldonea-Walker, Sweetwater Union High School District, CA, Rhea.Faeldonea-Walker@sweetwaterschools.org

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Hyun Jung Joo
The Ohio State University
joo.77@buckeyemail.osu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “How ESL Teachers’ Argumentative Epistemologies Shape Instructional Conversations in High School “Sheltered Instruction” Classrooms” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Hyun Jung Joo, The Ohio State University, joo.77@buckeyemail.osu.edu
George Newell, The Ohio State University, joo.77@buckeyemail.osu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Soomin Jwa
Boston University
forjasmine1@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Tracing Identity Changes In Disciplinary Genre Learning: A Case Study With L2 Undergraduate Students” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Soomin Jwa, University of Arizona, forjasmine1@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Päärä Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Hee-Seung Kang
Case Western Reserve University
hxk322@case.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Writing Center Tutors Working with L2 Writers: Challenges and Opportunities for Professional Development” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Hee-Seung Kang, Case Western Reserve University, hxk322@case.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

John Kania
Goodwin College
jkania@goodwin.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Building a Support System for English Language Learners at a Career College” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Diane Sperger, Ed.D., Goodwin College, dsperger@goodwin.edu
John Kania, Ed.D., Goodwin College, jkania@goodwin.edu
Philip Fox, MA, Goodwin College, pfox@goodwin.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Ilkem Kayican
SABANCI UNIVERSITY
ilkem@sabanciuniv.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Singing "My Way" in Developing Second Language Writing: Graduate Students' Own Experiences with Restricted Opportunities” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

ILKEM KAYICAN, SABANCI UNIVERSITY, ilkem@sabanciuniv.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Nicole Khoury
Saint Xavier University
nicole.khoury@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Multilingual Graduate Students Attitudes towards Writing Practices and Support” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Nicole Khoury, Saint Xavier University, nicole.khoury@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Pául Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Yuka Kikuchi
The University of Melbourne
kikuyuka@hotmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “A Cross-sectional Study of Writing Development of Second Language Learners of Japanese (Tertiary Level) in Australia” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Yuka Kikuchi, The University of Melbourne, kikuyuka@hotmail.com
Neomy Storch, The University of Melbourne, neomys@unimelb.edu.au
Ute Knoch, The University of Melbourne, uknoch@unimelb.edu.au

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Patricia Kilroe
Western New Mexico University
patricia.kilroe@wnmu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Curriculum Shift: Promoting Content-based Instruction in Second-Language College Composition Courses” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Patricia Kilroe, Western New Mexico University, patricia.kilroe@wnmu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Minsun Kim
Miami University
minkim7@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Developing Indigenous Second Language Writing Programs in Korean Higher Education” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Minsun Kim, Miami University, minkim7@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Jin Kim
University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign
salinmiso@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Maximizing the Benefits of Prewriting: An Example from College Level ESL Research Papers” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Jin Kim, University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, salinmiso@gmail.com
Lynee Lawson, University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, lyneelawson@yahoo.com
Cassandra Rosado, University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, crosado2@illinois.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Ji Yeon Kim
Indiana University, Bloomington
kimjiy@indiana.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “English Teacher’s Cognition and Writing Practices: A Case Study of A Korean University EFL Teacher” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Ji Yeon Kim, Indiana University, Bloomington, kimjiy@indiana.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Kyung Min Kim
Indiana University of Pennsylvania
kyungminkim7411@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Feedback Network and Multidirectionality of Second Language Socialization: Academic Writing Development in Graduate Education” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Kyung Min Kim, Indiana University of Pennsylvania, kyungminkim7411@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Ha Ram Kim
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
hkim169@illinois.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Learners' Processing of Two Different Types of Written Feedback on Academic L2 Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Ha Ram Kim, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, hkim169@illinois.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Soo Hyon Kim
University of New Hampshire
soohyon.kim@unh.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Towards a More Integrative Approach to Genre Research” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Soo Hyon Kim, University of New Hampshire, soohyon.kim@unh.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Päivi Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Jungyeon Koo
Seoul National University
christy9@snu.ac.kr

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “The Usage of Lexical Bundles in Korean Learner Corpus (YELC): Directing the Next Step to Korean EFL Writing Class” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Jungyeon Koo, Seoul National University, christy9@snu.ac.kr
Bitna Choi, Seoul National University, ambassador@snu.ac.kr

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Stephen Kopec
University of Pennsylvania, English Language Programs
sdkopec@sas.upenn.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Advancing Knowledge of L1 Arabic ESL Students’ Language Repertoires and the Impacts on Instruction and Feedback in an Intensive English Program” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Stephen Kopec, University of Pennsylvania, English Language Programs, sdkopec@sas.upenn.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Nasrin Kowkabi
University of British Columbia
nkowkabi@mail.ubc.ca

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Paraphrasing and Content Knowledge in Second Language Graduate Students’ Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Ling Shi, University of British Columbia, ling.shi@ubc.ca
Nasrin Kowkabi, University of British Columbia, nkowkabi@mail.ubc.ca
Ismaeil Fazel, University of British Columbia, ifazel@alumni.ubc.ca

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Nasrin Kowkabi
University of British Columbia
nkowkabi@mail.ubc.ca

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Becoming Second Language Writing Specialists: A Self-reflective Study of a TESOL Graduate Student Writing Group” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Rae-Ping Lin, University of British Columbia, raeping@gmail.com
Joel Heng Hartse, University of British Columbia, joelhartse@gmail.com
Nasrin Kowkabi, University of British Columbia, nkowkabi@mail.ubc.ca
Ismaeil Fazel, University of British Columbia, ifazel@alumni.ubc.ca
Tomoyo Okuda, University of British Columbia, tomooyookuda@gmail.com
Bong-gi Sohn, University of British Columbia, sohn.bonggi@gmail.com
Junghyun Hwag, University of British Columbia, jhwag@hotmail.com
University of British Columbia, University of British Columbia, klara.abdi@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Heejung Kwon
Purdue University
kwon65@purdue.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Going Digital: Professionalizing Web Portfolio Assessments through Rubrics” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Heejung Kwon, Purdue University, kwon65@purdue.edu
Song-Eun Lee, Purdue University, lee539@purdue.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Ge Lan
Northern Arizona University
gl239@nau.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Investigating the Relationship between the Second Language Writing Proficiency and Noun Modification” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Ge Lan, Northern Arizona University, gl239@nau.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Lynee Lawson
University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign
lyneelawson@yahoo.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Developing Early Leadership for Writing Teachers: Examples from “Head” Teaching assistants (TAs) of Advanced EAP Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Lynee Lawson, University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, lyneelawson@yahoo.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Eunjeong Lee
Penn State University
eul144@psu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Imagined Voice in Academic Writing: Conceptualization and Construction of Voice by Multilingual Graduate Writers in a Writing Course” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Eunjeong Lee, Penn State University, eul144@psu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Jongbong Lee
Georgetown University
jl1805@georgetown.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “A Dynamic Usage-based Approach to Korean EFL Students’ Writing: A Corpus-based Study” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Jongbong Lee, Georgetown University, jl1805@georgetown.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Song-Eun Lee
Purdue University
lee539@purdue.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “An Alternative Approach for Understanding Second Language Texts: Prototype Effects in L2 Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Song-Eun Lee, Purdue University, lee539@purdue.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Jungmin Lee
The Ohio State University
lee.4114@osu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Use of Digital Media: Toward Competent Knowledge Providers in Online Community as ESL Writers” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Jungmin Lee, The Ohio State University, lee.4114@osu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Jiyon Lee
Yonsei University
jasminelee927@hotmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “The Cultural Impact on Academic Writing in Korean Universities” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Jiyon Lee, Yonsei University, jasminelee927@hotmail.com
Inyoung Kim, Yonsei University, inyoung810@gmail.com
Hyejin Hwang, Yonsei University, hyejinh@yonsei.ac.kr

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Youngwha Lee
Arizona State University
Youngwha.Lee@asu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Expressing Emotions in L2 writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Youngwha Lee, Arizona State University, Youngwha.Lee@asu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

P. Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Fang Yu Liao
Indiana University of Pennsylvania
F.LIAO@IUP.EDU

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Professionalizing L2 Creative Writing Pedagogy: M.A. TESOL Students’ Perceptions on Their English Writing Experiences” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Fang Yu Liao, Indiana University of Pennsylvania, F.LIAO@IUP.EDU

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Nathan Lindberg
Indiana University of Pennsylvania
N.W.Lindberg@iup.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Faculty from Across the Curriculum’s Perceptions of ELL Writing Students” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Nathan Lindberg, Indiana University of Pennsylvania, N.W.Lindberg@iup.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Qiandi Liu
Northern Arizona University
ql29@nau.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “A Methodological Synthesis of Research on the Effectiveness of Corrective Feedback in L2 Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Qiandi Liu, Northern Arizona University, ql29@nau.edu
Dan Brown, Northern Arizona University, dwb28@nau.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Jianing Liu
Arizona State University
jliu77@asu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “A Comprehensive Examination of Chinese Students’ Pathways to FYC Courses” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

JIANING LIU, ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY, jliu77@asu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Genghan Lu
Northern Arizona University
gle258@nau.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “A Comparative Study of Hedging Usages between American and Chinese Students' Writings” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Genghan Lu, Northern Arizona University, gl258@nau.edu
Chenxu Fu, Northern Arizona University, fc253@nau.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:
http://sslw.asu.edu/2014

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Veronika Maliborska
Purdue University
vmalibor@purdue.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Group and Individual L2 Writing Conferences: Instructor and Student Perspectives.” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Veronika Maliborska, Purdue University, vmalibor@purdue.edu
Yunjung You, Purdue University, yeyou@purdue.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

(Handwritten Signature)

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Kyle McIntosh
University of Tampa
kmc3000@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “What Ever Happened to Post-process in Second Language Writing?” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Kyle McIntosh, University of Tampa, kmc3000@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Cyndriel Meimban
Northern Arizona University - Program in Intensive English
cyndriel.meimban@nau.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Helping L2 Students Find Their Writers’ Voice: From Student Newsletter Conceptualization to Production to Distribution” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Cyndriel Meimban, Northern Arizona University - Program in Intensive English, cyndriel.meimban@nau.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Aaron David Mermelstein
Ming Chuan University
merman2@hotmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Effectively Enhancing EFL Learners’ Writing through Extensive Reading” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Aaron David Mermelstein, Ming Chuan University, merman2@hotmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Hui-Tzu Min
National Cheng Kung University
minhuitz@mail.ncku.edu.tw

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Acquiring and Retaining Detecting and Commenting Skills through Peer Review Training: Effects of Observation and Feedback” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Hui-Tzu Min, National Cheng Kung University, minhuitz@mail.ncku.edu.tw
Yi-Min Chiu, National Cheng Kung University, k28981033@mail.ncku.edu.tw

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Nadia Moraglio
Center for English as a Second Language
moraglin@email.arizona.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “How Rubrics and Collaboration Can Facilitate Grading” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Karen Barto, Center for English as a Second Language, kabarto@email.arizona.edu
Marlena Goodsitt, Center for English as a Second Language, goodsitt@email.arizona.edu
Nadia Moraglio, Center for English as a Second Language, moraglin@email.arizona.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Donald Myles
Carleton University
donmyles@cmail.carleton.ca

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “An Examination of Students' Perceptions on the Role of Prior Genre Knowledge in the English for Academic Purposes Classroom.” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Donald Myles, Carleton University, donmyles@cmail.carleton.ca
Natasha Artemeva, Carleton University, natasha.artemeva@carleton.ca

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Gul Nahar
University of Oklahoma
Gul.Nahar-1@ou.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Roles of Translingualism and Transactionalism in Second Language Writing: Deconstructing the Conventional Notion of Standard Academic English” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Gul Nahar, University of Oklahoma, Gul.Nahar-1@ou.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Ulugbek Nurmukhamedov
Northern Arizona University
un3@nau.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “The Contribution of Collocation Tools to Collocation Production in L2 Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Ulugbek Nurmukhamedov, Northern Arizona University, un3@nau.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Katherine Daily O'Meara
Arizona State University
katherine.omeara@asu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Perceptions of Multilingual Students in a Graduate L2 Writing Course” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Katherine Daily O'Meara, Arizona State University, katherine.omeara@asu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Tomoyo Okuda
University of British Columbia
tomoyookuda@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Multiple Applications of “We Don’t Proofread Your Paper”: An Examination into the Educational Transfer of Writing Centers in Japan” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Tomoyo Okuda, University of British Columbia, tomoyookuda@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Terry Ontiveros
University of Texas at El Paso (UTEP)
taontiveros@miners.utep.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Vague Nouns Usage in L2 Emergent Academic Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Terry Ontiveros, University of Texas at El Paso (UTEP), taontiveros@miners.utep.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
Alev Ozbilgin Gezgin
Middle East Technical University Northern Cyprus Campus
ozbilgin@metu.edu.tr

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “First Steps in Becoming Professionals in Teaching EFL Writing: The Impact of Reading-writing Tasks on Turkish Pre-service Writing Teachers” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Dan J. Tannacito, Indiana University of Pennsylvania, dantannacito@yahoo.com
Alev Ozbilgin Gezgin, Middle East Technical University Northern Cyprus Campus, ozbilgin@metu.edu.tr

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Joshua Paiz
Purdue University
jpaiz@purdue.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Encouraging OWLs to Grow: An Examination of Content Development Best Practices” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Joshua Paiz, Purdue University, jpaiz@purdue.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Salma Parhizgar
Shiraz University, International Branch
salmaparhizgar@yahoo.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Coherence Errors in Iranian EFL Learners' Writing: A Rhetorical Structure Theory Approach” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Salma Parhizgar, Shiraz University, International Branch, salmaparhizgar@yahoo.com
Amin Firouzzadeh, Islamic Azad University, Shiraz Branch, amin.firouzzadeh@gmail.com
Shiva Ghaed Sharafi, Shiraz University, International Branch, sheeva.sharafi@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Kyongson Park
Purdue University
kspark@purdue.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Comparing Goals of L1 and L2 College Writers: A Survey Study of First-Year Composition Students” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Kyongson Park, Purdue University, kspark@purdue.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Hyojung Keira Park
Purdue University
park493@purdue.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “‘My Writing Sounds Unnatural!’: Addressing International Graduate Students' Concerns about Academic Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Hyojung Keira Park, Purdue University, park493@purdue.edu
Suneeta Thomas, Purdue University, thomas53@purdue.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Sarah-Hope Parmeter
University of California, Santa Cruz
shparmet@ucsc.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “When the First Language Can’t Be Written: Resources and Strategies for Working with Speakers of American Sign Language in Composition and Basic Writing Classes” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Sarah-Hope Parmeter, University of California, Santa Cruz, shparmet@ucsc.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

R Scott Partridge
Purdue University
rpartri@purdue.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Professionalizing Teaching Practicums through Digital Collaboration” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

R Scott Partridge, Purdue University, rpartri@purdue.edu
Heejung Kwon, Purdue University, kwon65@purdue.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Marla Perkins
Northern Arizona University
mp854@nau.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Syntactic Discourse Analysis: Tools for Graduate Student Independence” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Marla Perkins, Northern Arizona University, mp854@nau.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Charlene Polio
Michigan State University
polio@msu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “A Longitudinal Study of Written Language Development in Two Genres” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Charlene Polio, Michigan State University, polio@msu.edu
Hyung-Jo Yoon, Michigan State University, younhjo@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Robert Poole
University of Arizona
repoole@email.arizona.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “An Ecology-informed Genre and Corpus Approach for L2 Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Robert Poole, University of Arizona, repoole@email.arizona.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Muhammad Qureshi
Northern Arizona University
maq7@nau.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “L1 and L2 Vocabulary Use in Freshman Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Muhammad Qureshi, Northern Arizona University, maq7@nau.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Juval V. Racelis
Arizona State University
Juval.Racelis@asu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Understanding the Knowledge Bases of L2 Writing Teachers in FYC” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Juval V. Racelis, Arizona State University, Juval.Racelis@asu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Ali Rastgou
The University of Melbourne
arastgou@student.unimelb.edu.au

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Assessing the Impact of Teacher Feedback on Accuracy in the Writing of EFL Learners: A Longitudinal Study” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Ali Rastgou, The University of Melbourne, arastgou@student.unimelb.edu.au

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Kara Reed
University of Arizona
karaj@email.arizona.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Developing Writing Processes: Beyond the Writing Classroom” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Kara Reed, karaj@email.arizona.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Kara Reed
University of Arizona
karaj@email.arizona.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Online Intercultural Collaboration: Insights into the Writing Process” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Hsin-I Chen, Tunghai University, hsinichen20@gmail.com
Kara Reed, University of Arizona, karaj@email.arizona.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:
http://sslw.asu.edu/2014

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Melinda Reichelt
English Department, University of Toledo melinda.reichelt@utoledo.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Saudi Students’ Adaptation to Writing Instruction in the U.S.” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Melinda Reichelt, English Department, University of Toledo, melinda.reichelt@utoledo.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Bethany Reichen
University at Albany, SUNY
BReichen@albany.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Second Language Writers' Experiences and Strategies in a First-Year Writing Course” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Bethany Reichen, University at Albany, SUNY, BReichen@albany.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Wendy Reinalda
Thunderbird School of Global Management, Writing Center wendy@reinalda.net

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Putting Grademark to Work for L2 Writers” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Wendy Reinalda, Thunderbird School of Global Management, Writing Center, wendy@reinalda.net

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Christiane Rey
Northwestern University
c-rey@northwestern.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Consciousness-raising Tools in an Advanced Composition French Course” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Christiane Rey, Northwestern University, c-rey@northwestern.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Rachael Ruegg
Akita International University
rachaelruegg@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Differences in the Uptake of Peer and Teacher Feedback” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Rachael Ruegg, Akita International University, rachaelruegg@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Päivi Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Lisa Russell-Pinson
University of North Carolina at Charlotte
lpinson@uncc.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “On the Fringe and in the Thick of It: Inhabiting Whitchurch’s Third Space as SWL Professionals” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Lisa Russell-Pinson, University of North Carolina at Charlotte, lpinson@uncc.edu
Susan Barone, Vanderbilt University, susan.m.barone@vanderbilt.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Jet Saengngoen
University of New Mexico
jetsaengngoen@unm.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Contrasting Thai versus English Written Discourse Styles of Thai-English Bilinguals” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:
Jet Saengngoen, University of New Mexico, jetsaengngoen@unm.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Cristina Sanchez-Martin
Illinois State University
cristinasmartin@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “First-Year Composition Students’ Uptake to Multilingual Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Cristina Sanchez-Martin, Illinois State University, cristinasmartin@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Dinorah Sapp
University of Mississippi
dsapp@olemiss.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Professionalizing Writing Instruction in English for Academic Purposes Classes” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Dinorah Sapp, University of Mississippi, dsapp@olemiss.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Pāul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Lisya Seloni
Illinois State University
lseloni@ilstu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “(Re)Locating Second Language Writing at English Studies Programs: Research Imaginations of Emerging Scholars” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Lisya Seloni, Illinois State University, lseloni@ilstu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Carol Severino
University of Iowa
carol-severino@uiowa.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Examining Second Language Writing Development over Time: A Case Study of a Frequent User of Writing Center Online Tutoring” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Carol Severino, University of Iowa, carol-severino@uiowa.edu
Shih-Ni Sun Prim, University of Iowa, shih-ni-sun@uiowa.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Mohammad Shamsuzzaman
University of Canterbury
m.shamsuzzaman@pg.canterbury.ac.nz

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “An Investigation of Correlation between Instructors’ Background and L2W Teaching in the EFL Context of Bangladesh” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Mohammad Shamsuzzaman, University of Canterbury, m.shamsuzzaman@pg.canterbury.ac.nz
John Everatt, University of Canterbury, john.everatt@canterbury.ac.nz
Brigid McNeill, University of Canterbury, brigid.mcneill@canterbury.ac.nz

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Yun Shen
phoebe.shen13@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Different Modes of Teacher Feedback: Types and Nature, Students’ Responses and Contextual Issues” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Yun Shen, phoebe.shen13@gmail.com
Diane Potts, Lancaster University, d.j.potts@lancaster.ac.uk

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Ryan P. Shepherd
Arizona State University
ryan.shepherd@asu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Multilingual Writers, Comp, and Grammar: Grammar Contracts in the First-Year Composition Classroom” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Ryan P. Shepherd, Arizona State University, ryan.shepherd@asu.edu
Katherine Daily O'Meara, Arizona State University, kdaily@asu.edu
Sarah Elizabeth Snyder, Arizona State University, sesnryder@asu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Natsuko Shintani
National Institute of Education
natsukoshintani@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Computer-Mediated Synchronous and Asynchronous Direct Corrective Feedback on Writing: A Case Study of Two L2 Writers” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Natsuko Shintani, National Institute of Education, natsukoshintani@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Elena Shvidko
Purdue University
elenashvidko@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Preparation of Mainstream Composition Teachers Working with Multilingual Writers” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Elena Shvidko, Purdue University, elenashvidko@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Kendra Slayton
University of Tennessee-Knoxville
kslayton@vols.utk.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Assessing the Placement of L2 Writers: An Institutional Case Study of Student Perceptions.” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Kendra Slayton, University of Tennessee-Knoxville, kslayton@vols.utk.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Jennifer Slinkard
University of Arizona
jenniferslinkard@email.arizona.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Instructor Commentary on L1 and L2 First-Year Writing: Similarities and Differences” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Jennifer Slinkard, University of Arizona, jenniferslinkard@email.arizona.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Darby Smith
IELP at Portland State University
DLsmith@pdx.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Cohesion, Clarity, and Complexity: Comparing the Use of Referential Chains in L1 and L2 Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Darby Smith, IELP at Portland State University, DLsmith@pdx.edu
Linnea Spitzer, IELP at Portland State University, linneas@pdx.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

LuAnn Sorenson
Intensive English Institute, University of Illinois-Urbana-Champaign
lsorenso@illinois.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Bridge over Troubled Paragraphs: Promoting Critical Thinking and Connecting Ideas” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

LuAnn Sorenson, Intensive English Institute, University of Illinois-Urbana-Champaign, lsorenso@illinois.edu
Lisa Chason, Intensive English Institute, University of Illinois-Urbana-Champaign, lchason2@illinois.edu
Dianne Loyet, Intensive English Institute, University of Illinois-Urbana-Champaign, dloyet@illinois.edu
Anastasia Stoops, Intensive English Institute, University of Illinois-Urbana-Champaign, agusico2@illinois.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Pamela Stacey
University of Hawaii at Manoa
pstacey@hawaii.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Collaborative Writing in Two Thai EFL Classrooms” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Ai Oyama, University of Hawaii at Manoa, aioyama@hawaii.edu
Pamela Stacey, University of Hawaii at Manoa, pstacey@hawaii.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Pamela Stacey
University of Hawaii at Manoa
pstacey@hawaii.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, ““At-risk” College Writers and Evolution of an Athletics Writing Center” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Pamela Stacey, University of Hawaii at Manoa, pstacey@hawaii.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Pamela Stacey
University of Hawaii at Manoa
pstacey@hawaii.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Effects of Model-text Analysis on Genre Writing Abilities” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Aran Choi, University of Hawaii at Manoa, aran8@hawaii.edu
Pamela Stacey, University of Hawaii at Manoa, pstacey@hawaii.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Jay Tanaka
University of Hawaii at Manoa
jaymt@hawaii.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “A Dialectical Approach to Critical Thinking in EAP Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Jay Tanaka, University of Hawaii at Manoa, jaymt@hawaii.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Nadya Tanova
University of Dayton
ntanova1@udayton.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Language Use in Third Language Writing: A Case Study of Six Multilingual College Students” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Nadya Tanova, University of Dayton, ntanova1@udayton.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Nancy Tarawhiti
Auckland University of Technology nancytarawhiti@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “What Are Writing Difficulties?” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Nancy Tarawhiti, Auckland University of Technology, nancytarawhiti@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Suthathip Thirakunkovit
Purdue University
sthiraku@purdue.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Perceptions on Teacher Feedback: A Comparison between L1 and L2 Student Writers” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Suthathip Thirakunkovit, Purdue University, sthiraku@purdue.edu
Tyler Carter, Purdue University, carte100@purdue.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Suneeta Thomas
Purdue University
thomas53@purdue.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Journalogue: Voicing L2 Student Challenges in Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Suneeta Thomas, Purdue University, thomas53@purdue.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Terese Thonus
University of Kansas
tthonus@ku.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “The Firsts of Second Language Writing: An Argument for Disciplinarity” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Terese Thonus, University of Kansas, tthonus@ku.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Mariya Tseptsura
University of New Mexico
mtseptsura@unm.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Teaching Writing in a Second Language: The Experiences of NNEs Instructors in Composition Programs” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Mariya Tseptsura, University of New Mexico, mtseptsura@unm.edu
Stefan Frazier, San Jose State University, stefan.frazier@sjsu.edu
Todd Ruecker, University of New Mexico, truecker@unm.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

I Ju Tu
University of Wisconsin-Madison
elutu98@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “A Discourse Analysis: On the Study of Interaction between Identity Capital and World Language Writing Systems” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

I Ju Tu, University of Wisconsin-Madison, elutu98@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Alfredo Urzua
San Diego State University
urzuaba@yahoo.com.mx

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Reformulation in Second Language Writing: A Learner Corpus-based Investigation” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Alfredo Urzua, San Diego State University, urzuaba@yahoo.com.mx

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Izabela Uscinski
Arizona State University
iuscinsk@asu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Exploring Student Engagement with Written Corrective Feedback in First-Year Composition Courses” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Izabela Uscinski, Arizona State University, iuscinsk@asu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Narratives among Heritage and Foreign Language Learners: A Sociocultural Inside of the Writing Process” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Laura Valentin-Rivera, Texas Tech University, laura.valentin@ttu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Alessia Valfredini
Fordham University
valfredini@fordham.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Undergraduate Academic Writing Across Languages: A Sociocultural Study” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Alessia Valfredini, Fordham University, valfredini@fordham.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Lindsay Vecchio
University of Florida
lvecchio@ufl.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Linking Literacy Practices and Academic Writing: A Study of Haitian Generation 1.5 College Students” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Lindsay Vecchio, University of Florida, lvecchio@ufl.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Ashley Velazquez
Purdue University
Velazqa@purdue.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Microsoft Word: Friend or Foe in the Second Language Writing Classroom?” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

ashley Velazquez, Purdue University, Velazqa@purdue.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Writing Across Communities: Service Learning Composition for University L2 Writers” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Bonnie Vidrine, University of Washington, bonniv@uw.edu
Norah Fahim, University of Washington, nfahim@uw.edu
Dan Zhu, University of Washington, danz2@uw.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Eduardo Vila López
Kroton Educacional
profesor.eduardo.vila@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Writing Comic Strips to Teach False Cognates to Young Brazilian L2 Learners of Spanish” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Eduardo Vila López, Kroton Educacional, profesor.eduardo.vila@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Oksana Vorobel
Borough of Manhattan Community College, CUNY
ovorobel@bmcc.cuny.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “From Scaffolding to Autonomy: The Role of a Teacher in Adolescent ELLs’ Development of Second Language Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Oksana Vorobel, Borough of Manhattan Community College, CUNY, ovorobel@bmcc.cuny.edu
Deoksoon Kim, University of South Florida, deoksoonk@usf.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Jeannie Waller
JWaller@walton.uark.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Professionalizing and Americanizing Second Language Learners’ Business Writing: When the Second Language Learner Wants to Assimilate” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Jeannie Waller, JWaller@walton.uark.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Fu Wang
nmxr@iup.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Rendering Auditory Subjectivity into Poetic Rhetoric: An Aesthetic-inspiring Approach to L2 Creative Poetry Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Fu Wang, nmxr@iup.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Rosemary Wette
University of Auckland
r.wette@auckland.ac.nz

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Concept Mapping to Gather Student-Generated Evidence of Reflection and Conceptual Development in a Graduate Writing Course” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Rosemary Wette, University of Auckland, r.wette@auckland.ac.nz

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Ana Maria Wetzl
Kent State University Trumbull
awetzl@kent.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Code-meshing and Self-discovery: Bilingual Poetry in the Composition Course.” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Ana Maria Wetzl, Kent State University Trumbull, awetzl@kent.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Kristen Wilcox
University at Albany
kwilcox1@albany.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Engaging Multilingual Adolescents’ in Disciplinary Writing: Issues, Theory, and Research” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

kristen wilcox, University at Albany, kwilcox1@albany.edu
jill jeffery, CUNY-Brooklyn, jjeffery@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Elizabeth Wilcoxon
wilcoxon.elizabeth@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Prepositional Verbs in L2 Emergent Academic Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Elizabeth Wilcoxon,  wilcoxon.elizabeth@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Clay Williams
Akita International University
williams@aiu.ac.jp

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “L1 vs. L2 Written Peer Feedback Effects on L2 English Essay Composition” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Clay Williams, Akita International University, williams@aiu.ac.jp

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Kimberly Wolbers
University of Tennessee
kwolbers@utk.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Development of Writing in the Content Area Survey for Teachers of the Deaf” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Kimberly Wolbers, University of Tennessee, kwolbers@utk.edu
Hannah Dostal, University of Connecticut, hannahdostal@gmail.com
Rachel Saulsburry, University of Tennessee, rsaulsbu@utk.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Heidi Wright
Northern Arizona University
hrw37@nau.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Evaluation and Narrativity in Stand-alone Literature Reviews and Research Articles: A Register Analysis” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Heidi Wright, Northern Arizona University, hrw37@nau.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Taimin Tammy Wu
Arizona State University
zhtammy2014@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Are They Still “Anxious?” A Pilot Study of Treatment for Second Language Writing Anxiety of EFL College Students” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Taimin Tammy Wu, Arizona State University, zhtammy2014@gmail.com
Karen Chung-Chien Chang, National Taipei University, changcc0217@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Jing Xia
University of Michigan
jxiaapl@umich.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “L2 Students’ Perception of Why They Gain or Lose Points in Their Disciplinary Writing Tasks” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Jing Xia, University of Michigan, jxiaapl@umich.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Aiping Xiao
Shanghai Dianji University
xiaoaiping@sina.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “The Effects of Prewriting Strategy Training on Argumentative Writing of Chinese EFL Non-English Freshmen” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

aiping xiao, Shanghai Dianji University, xiaoaiping@sina.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Yuanhua Xie
Guangdong University of Foreign Studies
199910268@oamail.gdufs.edu.cn

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Investigating the Argumentation in Research Question Justification by L2 Novice Researchers” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Yuanhua Xie, Guangdong University of Foreign Studies, 199910268@oamail.gdufs.edu.cn

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Fang Xu
Nanjing University
fangxu@nju.edu.cn

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “The Development of Using Citations: Cross-sectional and Longitudinal Evidence from BA, MA and Phd Theses by Chinese EFL Learners” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Fang Xu, Nanjing University, fangxu@nju.edu.cn

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Jinfen Xu
Huazhong University of Science and Technology
xujinfen@hust.edu.cn

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Visualization of Focuses in Second Language Writing Research” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

JINFEN XU, HuazhongUniversity of Science and Technology, xujinfen@hust.edu.cn
RUI NIE, HuazhongUniversity of Science and Technology, nierui@hust.edu.cn

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Shizhou Yang
Yunnan Minzu University
yangshizhou@hotmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Growing L2 Writing Profession beyond Its Hobbit Holes: In Search of a Promised Land” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Shizhou Yang, Yunnan Minzu University, yangshizhou@hotmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Hae Sung Yang
Georgia State University
hyang20@gsu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Exploring Local Conditions That Affect L2 Writing Instruction in Korean Secondary School Contexts” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Hae Sung Yang, Georgia State University, hyang20@gsu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Yuching Yang
Arizona State University
Yuching.Yang@asu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Reexamining Perception of L2 Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Yuching Yang, Arizona State University, Yuching.Yang@asu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Hong Ye
kaikai99330@163.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “New Literacy Theory and Its Application in Task Design for L2 Writing Education” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:
Hong Ye, kaikai99330@163.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Youngjoo Yi
The Ohio State University
yi.57@osu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Negotiating Identities through Participation in L2 Writing and L2 Writing Research” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Youngjoo Yi, The Ohio State University, yi.57@osu.edu
Tuba Angay-Crowder, Georgia State University, tangay1@student.gsu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Yingying Li
The University of Hong Kong
doriali@hku.hk

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Individual Differences and Written Corrective Feedback: Exploring the Differential Effects of Direct and Indirect CF on Students’ Writing Development” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Yingying Li, The University of Hong Kong, doriali@hku.hk

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Fang Yu
University at Albany
lisayu0302@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “A Multiple-case Study of EL Adolescents’ Successful Socialization into the Written Discourse in Science” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Fang Yu, University at Albany, lisayu0302@gmail.com
Kristen Wilcox, University at Albany, kwilcox1@albany.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Jiying Yu
Shanghai Jiao Tong University
yuliz201@sjtu.edu.cn

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “The Effect of Explicit Critical Thinking Teaching upon the Argumentative Writing of Chinese EFL Learners at the Intermediate Level” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:
Jiying Yu, Shanghai Jiao Tong University, yuliz201@sjtu.edu.cn

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit:

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Ju Zhan
Jilin University
jzhan@jlu.edu.cn

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “The Grass Is Greener: Comparing L2 Writing Research as a Discipline in the U.S. and China” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Ju Zhan, Jilin University, jzhan@jlu.edu.cn

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Engaging Students in a Reflective Dialogue about Their Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Yue Zhang, English Language Center, fiefia555@gmail.com
Elena Shvidko, Purdue University, eshvidko@purdue.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Jun Zhang
Shanghai Second Polytechnic University
zhangjun@sspu.edu.cn

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “An Investigation into the Test Takers’ Source Use Strategies in Reading-to-Write Integrated Tasks” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Jun Zhang, Shanghai Second Polytechnic University, zhangjun@sspu.edu.cn
Yue Wu, Shanghai Second Polytechnic University, wuyue@sspu.edu.cn

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Liyin Zhang
Northwest University
zly00000@aliyun.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “What Lies behind the Mirror: A Socio-cognitive Approach to Citation Practices in EFL Academic Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Liyin Zhang, Northwest University, zly00000@aliyun.com
Yue Chen, Purdue University, chen1398@purdue.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]
Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Meixiu Zhang
Northern Arizona University
mz237@nau.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Is There a Role of the First Language in Collaborative L2 Writing?” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Meixiu Zhang, Northern Arizona University, mz237@nau.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Qi Zhang
University of South Florida
qzhang5@mail.usf.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Understanding Peer Response in an EAP Course: An Activity Theory Perspective” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Qi Zhang, University of South Florida, qzhang5@mail.usf.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Peiyun Zheng
Shanghai Second Polytechnic University
pyzheng@sspu.edu.cn

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “An Empirical Study on Language Output and Interaction Patterns of the Dyads of English Learners with Different Proficiency Levels in Text-based Synchronous Computer-Mediated Communication” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Peiyun Zheng, Shanghai Second Polytechnic University, pyzheng@sspu.edu.cn

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Dan Zhu
University of Washington
danz2@uw.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “A Cross-disciplinary Interaction: Embrace a TESOL Perspective in Composition” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Dan Zhu, University of Washington, danz2@uw.edu
Norah Fahim, University of Washington, nfahim@uw.edu
Bonnie Vidrine, University of Washington, bonniv@uw.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Jennifer Eidum Zinchuk
University of Washington
jzinchuk@uw.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Metacognitive Transformation: Enacting Pedagogical Memory at Times of Academic and Linguistic Transition” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Jennifer Eidum Zinchuk, University of Washington, jzinchuk@uw.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Maria Zlateva
Boston University
mariazl@bu.edu

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Embracing Complexity: In-house Training for Teaching L2 Academic Writing” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Maria Zlateva, Boston University, mariazl@bu.edu

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing
August 26, 2014

Randolph Zúñiga Coudin
Universidad de Costa Rica
rzunigaco@gmail.com

LETTER OF INVITATION: SYMPOSIUM ON SECOND LANGUAGE WRITING

I am delighted to invite you to present your work, “Indirectness Trends across Three Rhetorical Patterns in English Writing of Costa Rican EFL Learners” at the Symposium on Second Language Writing to be held November 13-15, 2014 at Arizona State University (ASU), Tempe, Arizona, USA.

The presenter(s) for this session include:

Randolph Zúñiga Coudin, Universidad de Costa Rica, rzunigaco@gmail.com
José Miguel Vargas Vásquez, Universidad de Costa Rica, jsmgvargas@gmail.com

Please note that the invitation is contingent upon successful registration. If you have not already, please register by visiting the following URL:

http://sslw.asu.edu/2014/registration.html

Established in 1998, the Symposium on Second Language Writing is a premier international academic conference for researchers and teachers of second and foreign language writing.

For more information about the 2014 Symposium on Second Language Writing, please visit: http://sslw.asu.edu/2014.

We look forward to seeing you at ASU!

Sincerely,

Paul Kei Matsuda, Founding Chair
Symposium on Second Language Writing